

CHINA

Presentation

Introduction

The main languages of china are mandarin and Chinese (traditional).

The capital city of China is Beijing.

China is a communist country although the government is much more lenient the other communist countries.

China borders North Korea, Russia, Nepal and Mongolia etc and has 14500 kilometres of coastline.

Harbin Ice Festival

- The Sculptures at the festivals are made entirely out of ice.
- Millions of people visit the festival each year.
- Temperatures can reach -24 degrees Celsius
- The festival can last until March if temperatures are cold enough.

The Provinces

- There are 23 province in China.
- Each province has a communist party centre.
- The least populated province Quinhai has 5.6 million people.
- The most populated province Guandong has 104 million people.

The Great Wall of China

- The wall stretches across the north of China.
- The official length is 21,196.18 km
- The Great Wall is more than 2,300 years old.
- Badaling is the most visited section (63,000,000 visitors come on average each year). And in the first week of May and October, the visitor flow can be up to 70,000 per day.

The Chinese Panda

- Panda's in China eat Bamboo.
- The giant panda is native to China.
- Panda's are considered good luck in China.
- Panda's are an endangered species

